For the attention of John Whelan

Dear Sir

RE: IKEA SOUTHAMPTON

A project to create 32,000m² of sales area and 900 car parking spaces on a 23,000m² site over 5 floors in 40 weeks was always going to be tough.

Natta brought to the project a flexible, efficient, and proactive team who assisted in simplifying the design, and making maximum use of the space available to progress their works without forgetting that there were up to 500 other operatives on site completing their trades' activities.

The professional site team, backed up by astute and transparent commercial support, ensured that I concluded the project with a desire to work together again in the future.

Yours faithfully,

Ian Lacon
